Dear Ms. Best:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2019-001091) submitted on May 22, 2019, in which you requested the following:

“[a]ll documents in the agency's possession that pertain to the WikiLeaks website or organization from January 2006 to the present date, including but not limited to emails, memos, notes, briefings, reports and other documents related to, mentioning or generated as a result of: * guidance and instructions for employees regarding visiting the website or otherwise reading or learning about it in the news; * internal reactions to the website's existence and disclosures; * damage reports regarding the website and its disclosures; * efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential leaks to the website; * efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential unauthorized viewing of the website or news reports analyzing it and/or its contents.”

Please be advised that after searching our records, GSA does not have records responsive to your request.

Since our search returned no responsive documents to your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. However, you have the right to appeal the adequacy of the search and you may submit an appeal online at the following link (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or in writing to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H3A)
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request. In addition, your appeal must contain a brief statement of the reasons for your appeal. Please enclose a copy of your initial request and this denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope or online appeal submission should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes action on your request. Should you have questions, you may contact me at travis.lewis@gsa.gov or contact our GSA FOIA Public Liaison, Audrey Brooks, at (202) 205-5912 or by email at audrey.brooks@gsa.gov for any additional assistance and to discuss any aspect of your FOIA request.
